INCLUSION & DIVERSITY

Diggers Rest Primary School strives to provide a safe, inclusive and supportive school environment which values the human rights of all students and staff. Diggers Rest Primary School is committed to the development of students, empowering them to excel through a culture of high expectations, purposeful relationships, challenge and support. The school is located within the growing community of Diggers Rest, approximately 35km northwest of Melbourne. Originally opened in 1882, the school was re-established in its current location in 1990. Diggers Rest is rapidly growing and the community is ethnically, culturally and socio-economically diverse. In order to cater for this growth and provide additional support to our families, we organised the school in a way to provide low class sizes and additional staff across the school. In 2022, Diggers Rest Primary School recorded 12 different places of birth amongst our students and staff. Our student cohort includes 50.25% male, 49.75% female, 1.01% non-English speaking, 1.01% at risk, 1.26% have a disability and 0% are refugees and 3 Aboriginal students.

Diggers Rest Primary School is committed to creating a school community where all members of our school community are welcomed, accepted and treated equitably and with respect regardless of their backgrounds or personal attributes such as race, language, religious beliefs, gender identity, disability or sexual orientation so that they can participate, achieve and thrive at school.

Diggers Rest Primary School acknowledges and celebrates the diversity of backgrounds and experiences in our school community and we will not tolerate behaviours, language or practices that label, stereotype or demean others. At Diggers Rest Primary School we value the human rights of every student and we take our obligations under anti-discrimination laws and the Charter of Human Rights and Responsibilities seriously.

Diggers Rest Primary School will:

- actively nurture and promote a culture where everyone is treated with respect and dignity
